

ABOUT THE MAJOR

EDUCATION, CULTURE, AND SOCIETY (NON-CERTIFICATION)

Students who major in Education, Culture, and Society are able to customize their knowledge of education and learning based on their career goals. Below are just some of the options that you could pursue through this major. You should select the concentrations that you plan to complete based on what you feel would be best suited to your career objectives and interests. Specific courses within those areas should be chosen in consultation with an academic advisor. We recommend students further develop their skills through internships and hands-on learning experiences.
